

Girl Scouts of the Jersey Shore
Weekend SING-A-LONG 2017

February 17-19 2017 for adults

February 18, 2017 for girls

Program Activity Center, 127 Yellow Brook Rd., Farmingdale

Spend a day learning how to incorporate Girl Scouts' history of song into your Girl Scout traditions. Bond with sister Girl Scouts from other states and a group of women who write and publish beloved Girl Scout songs. Girls will join you in the afternoon, followed by an optional dinner for adults participating in this full-day program. Although not required, you can bring your own Girl Scout song books, instruments and recording devices. New materials will also be available for purchase

ADULT PROGRAM:

- Weekend price $15 (Friday 4:00 pm until Sunday 12:00 noon includes Saturday dinner. Bring your own food and drinks for the rest of the meals)
 - If coming for the day, Saturday's program is 9:30 – 4:00 PM price $5.00, dinner optional
- Please bring:
- Your Girl Scout songbooks if you have any
 - Instruments, voice recorder + batteries, etc.
 - Money for new books?
 - Lunch and drinks
 - Sleeping bag and something soft to sleep on (mattress/cot) for overnight only

Online registration:

www.jerseyshoregirlscouts.org/adultsing

GIRL PROGRAM: Saturday program 2:00 – 4:00 PM price $5.00

Girls will receive info about Thinking Day and the World Centers for Girl Scouts and Girl Guides

Online registration

www.jerseyshoregirlscouts.org/girlsing

Questions: contact Betty Trivisono b_triv@yahoo.com (b_triv@yahoo.com)

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION: FEBRUARY 10, 2017